

Retractable Screens “The Shadow”

Technical

- Colours : Frame: White, brown and beige.
 Screen mesh: Black or privacy screen.
- Features: Designed and engineered in house.
 Three types of sill protectors.
 Low profile handle bar to increase viewing area.
 No Sharp edges contacting screen mesh avoiding premature wear.
 Full width screen mesh holding system.
 Non rusting metal construction providing strength.
 Plastic parts used for smoothness and quietness.
 Decorative lines also are used for drill alignment.
- Sizing: Use on windows up to 55”, doors to 48” wide or 8’ high.
 Double and French doors. (2 retractables required.)
- Mounting: Horizontal or vertical operation.
 Inside or outside of frame.
 “C” Style one piece installation.

Advantages and benefits

- Visually appealing, small housing profile.
- When screen mesh retracted, no vision impairment.
- Stock one size for all windows and doors, easy method of trimming to size.
- Packaged ready for cutting to size by retail outlet personal or installer.
- Minimal wait times for customers, same day availability.
- “Do it yourself” friendly.
- Custom sizes are available.
- Durable and long lasting.
- Ingenious design to withstand higher winds.
- Simple installation. Place in position and install mounting screws on tracks.
- Screen mesh is safely rolled inside, removes risk of screen mesh damage during installation.
- Screen mesh is protected from the elements when retracted.
- Simple patented design enables easy repairs if ever needed.
- Ongoing research and development. We listen to the consumers.

Manufactured by Stollco Industries - Port Coquitlam, BC - 604.941.6291 - www.stollco.com